Itinerary – cont.

Thursday, 2/20

Breakfast at hotel. Free day to walk or bike the trails, or take a kayak across the lake. Bicycles and kayaks are provided free of charge to resort guests. Others may wish to visit the nearby village of Santa María de Oro to wander the market, photograph one of Mexico's oldest churches, and maybe catch a glimpse of the colorful Huichol native people, whose territory surrounds this area. B/D

Friday, 2/21

Breakfast at hotel. Transfer to airport for departure to Uruapán in the state of Michoacán—the avocado capital of the world. Transfer to Hotel Mansión del Cupatitzio, named for the raging river and urban National Park of the same name. Free time to explore the lush vegetation, walking paths and waterfalls before dinner at Terraza de Trucha—or Trout Terrace—where you can (and should) eat fresh, local trout and maybe even wash it down with an avocado shake! We also hope to sneak in a visit to Fábrica San Pedro, a 19th-century textile factory still producing hand-loomed and hand-dyed linens of cotton and wool. B/D

Saturday, 2/22

Breakfast at hotel. We will board 4-wheel drive vehicles to visit Volcán Parícutín and the Templo San Juan Parangaricutiro, originally built in the 17th century and now completely surrounded—and all but buried by—the 9-year volcanic eruption that began in 1943. The story of the “world's youngest volcano” and its surrounding villages is unforgettable, and this tour will get you up-close and personal to this historic event and its people. B/L/D

Sunday, 2/23

Breakfast at hotel. Transfer to airport for the short flight to Morelia, the capital of Michoacán. After arrival procedures we will check in to the Hotel Casa Grande, a lovely boutique hotel housed in a restored 17th-century historic building, right in the historic center of Morelia. Walking tour of historic Morelia with English-speaking guide. B/D

Monday, 2/24

Breakfast at hotel. Today is all about butterflies as we visit one of the sanctuaries that harbor the majestic Monarchs wintering over in the Mexican highlands. We will learn about one of the most complex migration patterns on earth and have a chance to see the butterfly-laden fir trees and the carpets of orange along the paths of this incredible reserve area. For those who do not wish to walk, horses are available for hire to traverse the sanctuary. This will be an all-day and unforgettable excursion! Tour includes transportation, entrance to the sanctuary and guide fees. Horse ride is optional. B/L/D

Tuesday, 2/25

Breakfast at hotel. Transfer to airport for the international flight to Brownsville. After arrival procedures, transfer to Courtyard by Marriott. Farewell dinner at local restaurant. B/D

Wednesday, 2/26

Breakfast at hotel. Shuttle to airport for departures at your leisure. B
